

CMEPS in a Nutshell

Core CMEPS Courses for All Students	Profile Area			Electives	Joint Thesis Module
All CMEPS students focus on core issues in comparative and Middle Eastern politics. (Semesters 1-3)	CMEPS students take the courses from one of the three profiles. The profile depends on their home university and their first degree. (Semesters 1-2)			CMEPS students choose from a wide range of electives. (Semesters 1-3)	All CMEPS students write and defend their MA thesis with supervisors from both partner universities. (Semester 4)
Foundations / Methods of Political Science	Arabic Profile at the University of Tübingen	Political Science Profile at the University of Tübingen	Political Science Profile at AUC	Examples of electives:	Joint Research Colloquium at the University of Tübingen
	For students who start their studies at the University of Tübingen and hold a BA in political science	For students who start their studies at the University of Tübingen and hold a BA in Middle Eastern studies	For students who start their studies at AUC and hold a BA in political science	International Relations in the Middle East
Comparative Politics of the Middle East	Arabic for Beginners I	Comparative Theory	Comparative Theory	Political Economy of the Middle East	Joint Thesis Supervision
				Peace and Conflict Resolution
Development and International Cooperation	Arabic for Beginners II	Advanced Arabic		Middle East Cultures and Societies	Joint Oral Thesis defense
				Special Issues in Political Science
Regime Change and Democratization				Internship
				Language Course	